

Where is the newborn king of the Jews? Where is Jesus in our world today?
Where can I find Him?

Darkness covers the earth! Thick clouds are covering us over. But the Lord is shining upon us. His glory is appearing to us. He is standing at the door of our hearts and knocking. But where can I find Jesus?

I can find Him in silence, in silence before the Blessed Sacrament. As the psalmist says, "Be still and know that I am God."

God speaks to us in the Scripture. Look for Him especially in the Gospels. This year is the year of Mark. Search for the newborn king of the Jews, our Messiah. Why not look for Him in Mark's Gospel, the Epistle's of St. Paul? Look for Jesus in your family, the love you have for each other. Look for God in the forgiveness you offer to someone who has hurt you, in the forgiveness I receive.

We can really find Jesus in the hungry, in the stranger, in the naked and the sick, in those in prison.

So where is Jesus? Where can I find Him? In the silence, in my family, in the starving, in the person who has offended me, in the beauty of creation, in the Scriptures but most especially in the Holy Eucharist – the very Body and Blood of Jesus.

And in the Sacrament of Reconciliation – the very forgiveness of Jesus.

God is so present to us and we will continue our Search. We will find him. He will find us.
